Bloodstone is a great purifier, a healing tool for dispelling negative influences from the auric field and bringing one's energies into wholeness and balance. It instills courage and assists one in taking the right actions. Bloodstone can help you fulfill commitments in the face of obstacles and is excellent for someone who is undergoing tremendous change in their lives.

Bloodstone can keep you from becoming discouraged when you meet obstacles in your path. It can assist in feeling capable and self-sufficient. Bloodstone is useful for all types of blood ailments; it works at the source of the blood within the bone marrow. It can assist in strengthening and fortifying the blood and overcoming blood weaknesses such as anemia. It is also helpful in balancing female hormonal imbalances and stabilizes the hormones through menopause.

Arachne's Alchemy: This section of the newsletter is dedicated to transformation. Your questions are always welcome and can be emailed to me at arachne@forestwitch.com to get a direct reply.

Planetary energies are transformative. This is the first of a 10-part series regarding the transformative nature of the planetary energies held within the natal (birth) chart. Each planet and where it sits in the sign and house on the chart gives guidance as to the strengths and challenges you face in this lifetime. There are many ways to interpret these energies, and this section will focus on the way in which these planets promote mental, emotional, spiritual, and behavioral transformations.

We Have A Winner!

WINNER of the New Section Contest for the Forest Witch Magickal Monthly !

Thanks to all of you who provided your feedback and ideas for the contest. There were so many great suggestions that came from the Forest Witch community. Many will be used as articles in future editions of the Magickal Monthly.

I am thrilled to announce the winner of the New Section Contest. Congratulations to Lorraine Heim, who will start the New Year off right with a 20-minute tarot reading by Diane Wing ($50 value)!

Lorraine's idea is for a section on how to use different herbs (such as sage), fragrant oils, or symbols to help us cleanse our minds, bodies, and homes to create a calming and peaceful state of mind and environment. Look for it in the February issue!

The energies of Mars are calling me this month as we come into 2012. According to Astrology, Karma & Transformation by Stephen Arroyo, Mars promotes transformation of the capacity to assert one's will and to know what one really wants.

It's impossible to change your life without knowing what you want. I hear lots of folks saying that they want their life to be different, yet when I ask in what way, they either are not sure or they do not know where to begin to make changes.

This year, more than ever, it is critical to determine what you really want from your life and cultivate the will, self-discipline, and self-control to achieve your ideal situation. I am not talking about wishing for something to happen, like winning the lottery. This type of desire is wanting something for nothing. That is not how Universal Law works. Look at the number of people who win the lottery and then are quickly back to their original financial state.

When you imagine a life that allows you to use the gifts you brought into this life with you and focus your efforts in a persistent way, you are in creation mode. You create your life in a lasting way that gives you strength, power, and self-mastery while being in high service to others. Determining your direction and what you want allows you to remove all unwanted influences that do not contribute to your purpose, thus giving you more energy to accomplish your dreams.

Mars provides the burst of energy you need to fortify your ambition, stay motivated, and accomplish what you set out to do. It is up to you to decide how best to focus that energy to effectively use this planet's power.

If you would like to begin your personal journey of discovery, please contact me to explore ways that we can work together to help you see yourself and the world in a whole new way!

Forest Witch Commentary:

Resolve to Apply the Law of Transmutation of Energy in 2012

Each year people make New Year's resolutions. The top three that I've seen are to lose weight, quit smoking, and enjoy life more. The success or failure to achieve these resolutions is entirely up the individual. Folks start out with the best intentions and lose steam after only a few weeks. Focusing on changing a habit is doable, yet challenging. This year, you may want to try a new type of resolution: apply the Universal Law of Transmutation of Energy.

Centering on Universal Law instead of one particular behavior gives you the power to simultaneously change all aspects of your life that need improving. The nature of the energy in your life drives you toward positive activities (high vibration) or leads you to smoke, gain weight, or experience lack (low vibration). Using the Law of Transmutation of Energy, we have the power to change any condition in our lives.

So how does this work? By raising your overall vibration, you minimize or obliterate the lower vibrations. Strategies to raise your personal vibration include:

- Replacing negative thoughts about yourself and others with positive thoughts. For example: "I can't do anything right" versus "That mistake allowed me to learn something new."
- Avoiding or eliminating negative people in your life. These would be the ones who are constantly complaining, feeling entitled, angry, jealous, and draining. The longer you stay around this type of

Visit the site and click on the spirit bowl to begin your reading. This isn't a one-time predictive reading; it is a tool to help you look beneath the surface to find the answers within your mind, body and spirit. As you come back again and again, and as you use your on-line journal, you'll begin to see patterns in your life experiences. You'll learn to know yourself, which is the key to true power.

The process is simple: click on the spirit bowl and read the instructions to familiarize yourself with the way Pathways works. Yes, Pathways uses on-line cards embodying the four elements: Earth, Air, Fire, Water. But there's more. Each element also has a correspondence for a season, phase of the moon, magickal implement, compass direction, archangel, color, animal, gemstone, tree, Sabbat, time of day, and more. This allows Pathways to give you an incredibly in-depth look at what's going on within you and within your life, and help you look at person, the more likely you are to vibrate at the same level s/he is.

- Eliminate drama and guilt from your life. Review situations and relationships that create anxiety and tension and take steps to get rid of them one by one.

- Stop complaining about your situation and do something about it.

- Overcome the three deadliest enemies: Fear, doubt, and worry.

- Understand the natural rhythm of life and the patterns that create your personal cycles. There are times when it's important to rest and other times when it is essential to push forward. Increase your awareness of these trends and allow yourself to flow with them rather than resist them.

- Recognize that you are in control of your life and what is in it. Step out of the victim role and into the driver's seat. Take responsibility for yourself and what you want in your life.

- Determine your direction and purpose. This puts everything in context and allows you make choices based on whether or not it takes you closer to your overall goal.

- Take action. Don't just dream about what you want; engage in actions that support your desires.

Everything you think, do, say, believe, and feel has an energetic weight and impact on your life. When your vibration increases, you no longer seek behaviors that cause energetic imbalances such as smoking, overeating, or other heavier vibrational weight activity. You'll know it is heavier, because you will feel drained, anxious, depressed, and guilty. You'll know when it is of a higher vibration, because you'll have increased self-control and self-discipline. You'll no longer tolerate energies that weigh you down and will see the world as full of potential. You'll be fully on the path to growth and development and will feel propelled forward in new and wonderful ways.

The energies of 2012 call for dramatic transformation. Take charge of the energies you choose to have in your life and make the most out of this profound vibrational shift.

You can begin your journey right away, or take the time to look at the cards. I chose to check out the cards first, and enjoyed looking at the images and reading about the card's meaning and what it might signify in a reading. There's a lot of information on each card; take the time to see how it relates to you and your current condition. Do you agree with the interpretation offered, or do you see other possibilities?

If you follow the guidelines and center yourself by taking a few deep breaths and focusing on the question you want to ask, Pathways can offer great insight. You have a choice of spreads, which is nice. I had a specific goal in mind, and I was amazed at the depth of my reading. I learned a great deal about myself, and I found answers I hadn't expected.

I could go on and on about Pathways, but I urge you to go there now and try it for yourself. Acquaint yourself with the cards and spreads, center yourself, and begin your journey. It's well worth the time, and I'm sure you'll be amazed at what the cards tell you. - Casey Anderson
