Gemstone of the Month—Tiger Eye

Tiger Eye is a solar stone of vitality, practicality and physical action. It helps you take effective actions in response to the needs and challenges of physical life while remaining grounded, calm and centered regardless of the situation.

Tiger Eye is the stone of mental clarity; it stimulates intellect and logic and supports physical vitality and energy. The stone can aid in cell respiration and metabolism. It is strengthening to the endocrine system and can assist in bringing hormones and biochemistry into balance.

Tiger Eye helps those who tend to go to extremes find equilibrium in their emotional life. It can help create harmony with different viewpoints, beliefs or approaches to life. It is excellent in bringing harmony to families and relationships.

Quote of the Month

"Ask yourself this: what good is it to live eternally in the light? One of light's aspects is exposing what is already known, that which is obvious and mundane. Remember, my clever one, that life forms wither and die when left to bask in too much light. Darkness maintains balance within the web of life.

darkness to balance out the light, there can be no natural growth, change or transformation. All in the light is in its perfection. All that is in the dark is in its perfection as well.

"Without darkness to balance out the light, there can be no natural growth..."

Forest Witch Commentary

Many seek the wisdom of the Tarot and ask questions related to their future. Will I get married? How many children will I have? When will I succeed in my work? There are many factors that go into these questions, many of which are up to the individual asking the question. Desire alone is insufficient for your dreams to come true. Your actions have much to do with whether or not something manifests. Tarot pulls information based on the energies present at the time of inquiry. You could leave the session and make a decision that completely changes what the cards indicated. You create your future with every decision you make and every action you take...or don't take. When in a session, use the time to understand how you can take control of your future.

Magickal Tip

"Mind has a tendency to talk to itself. This can manifest as ongoing chatter framed in words and phrases, or in strings of ideas of a more visual or sometimes abstract nature. ...The pursuit of mystery requires the mind to be still.

"...Periods of silence are

"Periods of silence are necessary in the growth and life of the soul..."

necessary in the growth and life of the soul, be it silence of the self or silence of the universe of spirit. The pursuit of mystery requires that silence be attended, that one's attention not flag for lack of stimulus, that pinpoint focus not be scattered by random appearance of distraction."

Bring Peace Into Your Life

Herbs and colors can go a long way in pulling in the energy of peace and harmony.

The following correspondences are recommended by Scott Cunningham to align with the vibration of peace: The color blue, basil, benzoin, cumin seed, gardenia, hyacinth, lilac, magnolia, narcissus, rose, and tuberose.

You can use essential oils of these to anoint yourself, your home, or any other space, grow them around your house, or put the oil or dried herbs on a charcoal disk to release the fragrance and energies into your space.

Certain herbs have peaceful properties.

This section is dedicated to transformation. Questions are always welcome and can be emailed to me at to get a direct reply.

Planetary energies are transformative. This is the final installment of a 10-part series regarding the transformative nature of the planetary energies held within the natal (birth) chart.

The energies of Neptune are calling me this month. According to Astrology, Karma & Transformation by Stephen Arroyo, Neptune, transforms one's spiritual and/or social ideals.

As we mature, our perspective changes. We see life differently, we analyze spiritual beliefs and modify them according to new information and increased understanding.

With the transformation of our beliefs comes a shift in social ideals—what we are willing to accept from ourselves and others, what behaviors are aligned with our transformed sensibility.

What is your vision of the world, your ideal of the potential of your life? Are you acting in accordance with that

Neptune transforms spiritual and social ideals ideal? Are you striving toward your vision or simply wishing for it and not taking action?

Neptune calls you to evaluate your spiritual and social ideals and make modifications where necessary.

Keep those that still resonate with you and let go of those that no longer serve your path. It is never too late to make changes and to decide how to proceed in the most effective way to embody your ideals, to walk the talk, to exemplify that which you stand for and hold dear to your heart. You have the power to transform your life through the shifting of your conception of the world and your place in it.
