Weaving A Web of Peace - Flowers that calm, clear, and protect

This new section shows you how to use various approaches to cleanse your mind, body, and homes to create a calming and peaceful state of mind and environment.

You've felt the soothing effects of walking through a beautiful garden. You may even be a gardener and like to cut flowers and bring them into the house. My lilac bushes produce wonderful blossoms that I cut and bring into the house; they have brought me many fragrant, peaceful hours of joy. Bringing the outdoors in can make a huge difference in how you feel and the way your environment feels. Here are some great blooms you can add to your garden or bring into your home to enjoy their clearing, calming effects.

Arachne's Alchemy: This section of the newsletter is dedicated to transformation. Your questions are always welcome and can be emailed to me at arachne@forestwitch.com to get a direct reply.

Planetary energies are transformative. This is a 10-part series regarding the transformative nature of the planetary energies held within the natal (birth) chart. Each planet and where it sits in the sign and house on the chart gives guidance as to the strengths and challenges you face in this lifetime. There are many ways to interpret these energies, and this section will focus on the way in which these planets promote mental, emotional, spiritual, and behavioral transformations.

The energies of Saturn are calling me this month. According to Astrology, Karma & Transformation by Stephen Arroyo, Saturn transforms one's ambitions, priorities, and work structure.

With the restrictive nature of Saturn, it tends to get a bad rap. It forces us to put our noses to the grind stone and focus on the current task and learning requirement before moving on to the next level. It gives us the fortitude to persist in the face of adversity. We tend to want things right away, yet the energies of Saturn ensure that we are prepared to handle greater responsibility and pushes us to develop our skills. Saturn assists us in bringing ideas into material form.

Saturn helps us to achieve self-mastery and have the fortitude to pursue the work that will get us closer to achieving our ambitions. It is the planetary energy that helps us perform the tasks necessary for success. Achievement demands that we overcome the fears that hold us back and to take responsibility for the work we need to do on ourselves to that end.

When striving toward a particular goal, focus is necessary. Saturn limits our desire to dabble in too many things at once and helps us focus our attention on the main goal. It assists us in prioritizing the steps to take and the way to structure and organize the work to achieve the best results. Stability is fostered when the proper structure is in place and promotes integrity in the actions we take.

The key is not to become too rigid in the process and incorporate a dynamic flow that allows adjustments to be made when there is a change. Keep tabs on your thought and beliefs pertaining to the tasks at hand; introspection is a good way to sense whether or not you are on the right track.

Patience is required when Saturn is forcing you to focus. For some, this may feel like a form of imprisonment, yet its purpose is to prevent regrets. The desire to move past it may create premature actions and derail the appropriate timing that will take you off the path and result in an even longer wait for the results you want. Stillness will open you in ways that expansion cannot. It is a time of learning, cultivating inner strength, and preparation. Saturn the task master will prepare you for what lies ahead. You will know when you are ready to move forward.

Lilac and Lavender - balancing emotionally, spiritually, and intellectually

You can use rose water to protect yourself and your home. It is easy to make. Simply put a teaspoon of rose petals in boiling water and add alcohol. The ratio should be three-quarters water to one-quarter alcohol. You can use the rose water to bless each of your chakras. Then trace each door and window in a clockwise direction to anoint all of the openings in your home. You can also put it in a spray bottle and spray your home, office, or any place you would like to clear of negativity and replace it with a peaceful vibration.

Enjoy the flowers of the season!

Empowering you to create your ideal life

Forest Witch Commentary: How Do You Do Unto Others?

You know the phrase: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you [Luke: 6:31 & Matthew 7:12]. This is also known as The Golden Rule. Essentially, treat others as you expect to be treated. Most would not want to be hurt, lied to, or stolen from. Basically, this is about treating others with care and respect, which I agree with.

Consider your motivation for the way you treat people. Is it out of jealousy, low self-esteem, control, or fear? Or do you act as a result of a desire for others to do well and manifest what they want in life? Are you kind and supportive because you seek approval or is it because you are called to do so out of true concern for others? Determining the motivating force underlying action allows you to understand why you make the choices you do. It will also help explain what happens in your life as a result of the energies that are returned to you. Remember, what you put out comes back to you threefold.

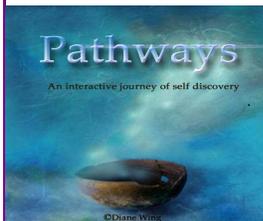

Let's take the example of acting out of control. You may feel that you are doing it for someone's "own good," but the bottom line is that you are saying they are not capable of taking control of their own life or making their own decisions. One way of doing this is when people pray for others for things that the person may or may not want. Without having permission, it is a form of dark magick to request things for people, including healing, that they may not desire. The challenges placed in their path are to help them learn and grow. To ask for that obstacle to be removed for someone without their consent is to step into their karmic path and deny them the opportunity to strengthen themselves and learn from their experience.

That's when I realized that the phrase, "Do unto others as they would have you do unto them," feels more appropriate. Not everyone wants to be treated the same as you do; it is important to recognize what the other person wants and not to insert into their lives something you think they should have.

Act with virtue and understand the reasons why you make the choices you do. This kind of awareness will change the way you look at the world.
