Quote of the month:

"Power is always inside. Whatever the heights you may attain, the power that takes you there will always come from within."

- Paul Foster Case, Esoteric Secrets of Meditation and Magic

Magical Tip:

"The final felicity condition for a magical spell is that the verbal part of the spell must be uttered in the appropriate manner...we should not slog through long, dull recitations of magical incantations in a monotone if we expect to have an effect."

- Patrick Dunn, Magic Power Language Symbol

Magickal Events for April:

April 1 - April Fool's Day

April 2 - Putting Yourself First...Without The Guilt workshop

April 3 - New Moon in Aries

April 15 - Celtic Tree Month of Willow begins

April 16 - 3 Classes for protection & manifestation, Elkton, MD

April 17 - Full Moon (Wind Moon) & Palm Sunday

Gemstone of the Month: Labradorite

Labradorite is the gemstone of magic and it awakens in those who carry or wear it the awareness of one's innate magical powers.

Labradorite creates a force field throughout the aura protecting and strengthening the energies within and preventing others from tapping into your personal energy and draining you. It is also useful for magical and ritual work and acts as a psychic protection for those who travel and serve on other levels of reality. It activates the inner eye allowing one to more clearly envision the past, future and distant places.

Labradorite can help reveal the nature of "mystery illness", it can show the patterns that have created disease and can amplify one's healing thoughts.

April 19 - Passover begins

April 20 - Sun enters Taurus

April 22 - Good Friday & Earth Day

April 24 - Easter

April 26 - Passover ends

Diane,

"I just wanted to thank you for such a wonderful learning experience. I enjoyed every second of our Level 1 Tarot class. I wondered how it would turn out having to take the class with you over the phone, but very quickly I learned that it didn't matter! Being able to study with you in the convenience of my own home was wonderful. I would recommend it to anyone considering taking a phone course. I learned very quickly that you don't need to be face to face to connect with each other.

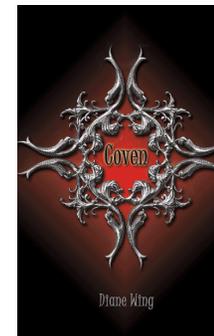

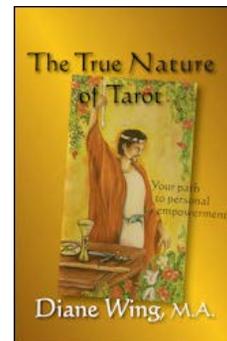

Your patience, compassion and great sense of humor made this experience with you one that I will never forget. Your praise and confidence in me has shown me to trust in myself and has helped me become so much more aware of the messages that I receive. The growth that I have seen in myself since your class has been priceless. I look forward to the next level with you! Thank you so much."

- Jenn M. - Northville, Michigan

Forest Witch Commentary: Take Action!

It's exciting, fun, and enlightening to attend live and remote events, to learn new things, and to grow from it. People are excited when they hear the information, their enthusiasm is high during the actual session, they take reams of notes...and then they lose momentum once they get back home.

I was at a business women's conference yesterday. As we listened to lectures by successful business leaders in the area it occurred to me that I know many people who attend lectures, classes, coaching programs (both business and personal), and teleseminars as a way of life...yet never take action on the information presented! They become professional students with no intention or motivation to put the information into practice.

Attending the event itself is the first step to learning a new technique to improve your business or personal life, to be followed by assimilation through practice. Make it come alive by applying it to your own life. For example, if the topic is about self-empowerment and one of the suggestions is to practice saying "no," the next time someone in your life asks you to do something you really don't want to do, say no! Note the response of the other person, and if your approach was a bit harsh, next time modify it to be more diplomatic. The only way to form new habits is to practice them.

When you don't put into practice all of the great information and advice you hear during your learning experiences, you are essentially wasting your money. I know a woman that spent thousands of dollars participating in business "boot camps," in-person and via teleseminar, only to do absolutely nothing with the information. She did none of the exercises, did none of the homework, and ultimately was at the beginning each time she took the next course.

Donations to Sanktuary Spa are welcome

7 pm to 8 pm - Diane Wing - The magick of life is our ability to create. With the gifts of free will and the use of the esoteric tools of tarot and vocational astrology, we can gain major insights into ourselves and our true calling so that we can create the life we really want.

8 pm to 9 pm - Mike Shoeman, author of the book The Destiny 5 Experience, will lead the National Mastermind Meetup Miracles through the 7th Phase of the 60 Day Quest. After experiencing the mental creation of an outcome, after navigating the emotional waters of the Quest, this 7th phase represents finding the key piece of information to complete one's desired outcome.

Another woman that comes to mind has taken metaphysical classes for years, followed all the "gurus" of spiritual philosophy, read and studied lots of ideas around spirituality, yet still has not come to a higher understanding of herself, those around her, or life in general. She loves talking about these ideas, she can tell you what she learned in the classes, yet she continues to struggle with her personal issues, not having practiced the philosophies she's been exposed to.

I know another woman who spent tens of thousands of dollars in getting all kinds of healer certifications in various techniques, only to do nothing with them except to say that she has the certifications. She did not learn the underlying philosophy of the techniques, she did not practice them so as to become proficient, she could not answer simple questions about the modalities, she was unable to attract clients with these techniques. All that time and money wasted!

Don't let this happen to you. Go in with the intention of doing something different in your life or your business. Make sure that the information you are getting is something that resonates for you and makes sense to incorporate into your work or life and, if it is, take steps to make it happen.

Decide before attending any class that you will take the information and do something with it! To get the most out of classes, lectures, workshops, and seminars, do the following:

- Connect with others at the event and get their phone number or email address so you can keep in touch afterward and support each other in ways to use the information.
- Identify the number one piece of information that was most pertinent to your needs.
- While you are at the event, list several ways that you can put that one piece of information into practice.
- When you get home, take action toward that one piece of information as soon as possible.
- Ask someone you trust to hold you accountable for taking action.

Those who take the action step of applying what they learn feel empowered, excited, and inspired in their lives and their work. The next time you take a class, decide how it fits into your ultimate goals and the ways you can use the information to get farther down the road to success.

If you'd like to learn great methods of improving your life or your business and want to take action toward that end, having a guide that helps you stay on track and makes the information apply specifically to your situation is a great way to achieve the results you want. ### Three Classes - Take One, Two, or all Three!

Cecil College, 107 Railroad Avenue, Elkton, Md. 21921

April 16, 2011      10 am to 2 pm      $25 per person per class

10 am to 11 am - Discovering your life purpose - Discovering your life purpose gives meaning to everything you do and allows you to fulfill your karmic destiny. It's the road map of your life. In this 1-hour class, you'll learn ways to uncover your purpose, and how the divine expression of your purpose in high service to others fulfills karmic responsibilities. Diane will take you through an exercise that will result in your life purpose statement. To register refer to course GWE 141-01

11 am to 12 pm - Removing blocks to manifestation - Would you like to manifest more money, a new home, your ideal career? Have you tried to apply the Law of Attraction without success? So what's blocking your ability to manifest your desires? In this class we're going to talk about how to clear the blocks that prevent you from manifesting what you want in your life. To register refer to course GWE 143-01

1 pm to 2 pm - Psychic Self-defense - We are exposed to a constant stream of energies; some are positive and others are negative or unwanted. Some come from people directing ill will towards us; some comes from exposure to certain environments where terrible things happened. Understanding how to deal with unwanted energies is one of the most important skills you can have. This class will help you to minimize or eliminate the negative effects of these energies on your body, mind, and spirit. To register refer to course GWE 142-01

This course will teach you ways to avoid these unwanted energies and how to protect yourself.

Arachne's Alchemy: This section of the newsletter is dedicated to transformation. Your questions are always welcome and can be emailed to me at arachne@forestwitch.com to get a direct reply. Spring cleaning is transformative. Look around you, in your home or your business same (for many it's one and the same!). Does the energy feel stagnant? Have things been piling up and you haven't had a chance to address the clutter? The more stuff, dirt, and dust that accumulates in your space, the more you'll feel it energetically. Purging your environment of unnecessary items and papers allows the energy to flow through the space. That includes closets! It also a lot easier to clean. When table tops, desk tops, and floors are clear of clutter, it's easy to dust and vacuum. It's really amazing how fresh, open, and new your old space can feel when it is clean and clutter-free. You may get really ambitious and give a room or two a new coat of paint. All of this activity is perfectly aligned with the energies of spring and new beginnings. You'll feel refreshed and inspired when you transform your space from cluttered to clear. Top it off with a space cleansing with a sage wand or spray to clear away any stagnant or unwanted energetic remnants.
