Featured Product: Insight Stones

Gemstone of the Month: Garnet

The word Garnet comes from the Latin granatum, meaning "pomegranate" in reference to the color being similar to that of a pomegranate seed.

The birthstone for January, Garnet is a stone of health. It works by extracting negative energies from the chakras and transmuting it to a healthful state.

Garnet can assist changing one's world by expanding awareness and the ability to manifest. It brings creative powers forward and balances and stimulates the Kundalini.

Garnet amplifies emotional and intellectual connections to help one understand and accept these aspects of the self. It cleanses, purifies, and eliminates disordered energies and discourages chaotic, disruptive, and disorganized paths. Garnet stabilizes the mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual bodies.

This stone can be used to manifest creative imaginings in the physical world. It grounds desires and carries the energy of prosperity and enjoyment of worldly pleasures.

In the Middle Ages, Garnet was thought to truth and faith and dispel melancholy. According to the Talmud, the only light on Noah's ark was provided by a large garnet. Garnet has correspondences to the astrological signs of Leo, Virgo, Capricorn, and Aquarius, and vibrates to the number 2.

Arachne's Alchemy: This section of the newsletter is dedicated to transformation. Your questions are always welcome and can be emailed to me at DianeWing@forestwitch.com to get a direct reply. You've seen my Mystery School (Wing Academy of Unfoldment), taken classes, or thought about taking classes there. The name of the school is a mystery to some: why did I choose the word "unfoldment" to describe the nature of the classes and the effect the information has on students. My mission is to provide you with courses that provide relevant information on the esoteric arts and occult philosophy in a way that promotes an opening or unfoldment of you as an individual. What exactly is unfoldment in this context? It is the action of extending oneself beyond your former state, learning in a way that opens the mind, heart, and soul to new ways of thinking and being. To unfold, the process of shedding and removing old ways of approaching life is required in order to reveal the power inherent in your being. To know thyself is the key to life and to all magical operations. Unfoldment allows one to make the self known to the self. Expanding beyond your former self reveals your true nature in ways that were formerly unknown to you. Unfoldment is also the process of developing your spiritual side and your connection with the Divine. In this way, the self opens to the abundance of the Universal Energy and taps into the unlimited potential available to you. Unfoldment allows you to increase your understanding about yourself, your purpose, and the unique gifts you bring to the world. The act of unfoldment may occur gradually or take place in a flash of insight. Classes at the Wing Academy foster expedited awareness... To read the rest of this article Click Here
